

Lee Harris, a male solo artist like no other

Brighton based artist Lee Harris has been writing and recording since his early twenties. Lee's talent shows intelligence and refinement, whilst the creation remains unafraid and passionate, reflecting a life lived fully through feeling. Expect heartfelt vocals and simple, authentic and deeply moving lyrical content, brought forward in a male voice at once striking and classic.

Lee's musical career is notable, with years spent mastering his craft resulting in many successful collaborations, as well as five independent releases to date. Lee now co-owns the company Golden World Music which is releasing his work.

Golden World Music launched their catalogue in late 2009 with a remastered and repackaged version of Lee Harris' first Album Shapeshifting (original release 2002), alongside the singles Hollow and Hollow Remix (produced by Third Floor Tiger).

An Instrumental Version of Hollow is included on the soundtrack of the award winning documentary film Two Spirits (Lydia Nibley [2009]).

In June 2010, Lee collaborated with musician Dan Burke and released Phoenix (the live recordings). This 5 track EP features 4 original songs plus a cover version of Chris Isaak's Wicked Game. Phoenix is accompanied by 3 live-footage videos.

In Spring this year, Lee released a cover of Sarah McLachlan's Angel.

Lee is releasing his latest Album Golden World, in Autumn 2011. The album includes the forthcoming single Time.
